

SEFAA Consignment Application Preview

Things to Know Before you Apply:

- You must be an individual SEFAA member in good standing to sell your work in the SEFAA Shop.
- Submitted items must be textiles handmade by you.
- We charge a 25% commission.
- SEFAA's decision on whether or not to sell all or some of your work in the SEFAA Shop is final.
- Sales will be processed by SEFAA and you will receive a monthly payout minus credit card fees and SEFAA commission (either by check or transfer to your PayPal account).
- You must provide SEFAA a legible, complete, and accurate inventory of your sale items when you deliver them.
- You must price and label your items before bringing them to SEFAA. Your labels must include at least the following information:
 - A unique item number in the format ABC - XXX where ABC are your initials and XXX is a unique item number.
 - Price
 - Content and care information, if appropriate.
- If your work has not sold after 60 days, you will be asked to pick it up from the SEFAA Center. (Larger items at higher price points may be considered for longer at SEFAA's discretion.) Items unclaimed after 90 days will become the property of SEFAA.

Information Needed to Complete Your Application:

- Your contact information
- A description of the item(s) you are interested in selling. For each item, include:
 - Type and general size (queen-sized quilt, earrings, ...)
 - Number (how many do you have to sell)
 - Materials (natural, synthetic)
 - Primary techniques (weaving, needlepoint, ...)
 - Price range (under $25, under $50, $100 - $500, over $500)
- You must email representative images of the work you'd like to sell to info@fiberartsalliance.org within one week of submitting your application. If your images do not clearly convey quality, size, or other necessary information, you can bring your work to the SEFAA Center to be evaluated.
- A short (2-3 sentence) description of what you would like customers to know about your work.

Ready to apply?

- Visit <https://forms.gle/GbHRNv8C1JDZCumSA> to fill out our online application.

